

INVESTMENT APPROACH

The Fund invests worldwide in securities with fixed or variable interests. It aims to achieve high income and to outperform the benchmark by optimizing the allocation of bonds and leveraging sources of added value.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

Over the month of October, the NAV of the fund rose + 0.91%. High-yield bonds benefited from stronger ECB quantitative stimulus. They recorded the best performance of the bond asset class. Global growth is still modest, but the risk of a recession seems to be moving away. After the deceleration in recent months, global growth should stabilize. The postponement of the Brexit to January 31, 2020 has reduced fears of a chaotic exit of the UK and continued negotiations between China and the United States reassured investors. However, the political context surrounding Brexit and Sino-US relations remains uncertain. The ECB has stepped up its quantitative stimulus to cope with weak growth. It will buy 20 billion euros per month of government and corporate bonds. After the third rate cut, the Fed should adopt a wait-and-see attitude, encouraged by strong growth in employment and wages. Monetary policies will remain accommodative, even if central banks pause. High-Yield corporate bonds continue to offer attractive yields. The less gloomy economic news provides a reassuring environment. During the month, we arbitrated Banco Santander 5.25% perpetual against Banco Santander 0% perpetual. We bought SGL TransGroup 6.356% 2024, Trafigura 7.5% perpetual and Sigma 5.75% 2026. On the other hand, we sold Schmolz + Bickenbach 5.625% 2022 and BPER Banca 5.125% 2027.
