

ARCHEA FUND | Europe

June 2021

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

The Eurostoxx 50 index (SX5P) ended June with an increase of 2.80% and the first half with an increase of 7.90%. Our fund stood out with a jump of 2.71% in June and a surge of 15.56% for the semester. Vaccination campaigns and the gradual lifting of activity restrictions have excited investors. The upward move has accelerated further with the recovery in global growth.

In June, we further reduced our position in LVMH, making a significant profit. On the other hand, we have strengthened our holdings in Lonza and Rio Tinto. Finally, we proceeded to a partial sale of our position in Royal Dutch against UCB shares.

Outlook: We remain favourable to equities as the U.S. and European central banks will continue to provide massive support for economic growth. However, the coming months are not without risks, as the virus and its variants will still be talked about. There are also the federal elections in Germany at the end of September. Therefore, it is important to maintain a well-balanced portfolio.
